

Most of Cash in Sinatra Case Found

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Frank Sinatra Jr. made plans to sing again while federal authorities prepared to take three men to court as his alleged kidnapers.

Friends said young Sinatra was anxious to return to work at Lake Tahoe.

A spokesman for Harrah's Casino, where the 19-year-old entertainer was employed at the time of his abduction Dec. 8, confirmed that a new motel room was being prepared for him.

Pat France, vice president of Harrah's, said, however, that Sinatra Jr. definitely wouldn't resume singing before Tuesday night. He is featured with the Tommy Dorsey Band, which takes Monday nights off.

Tino Barzile, the youth's manager, told newsmen:

"We're moving him to another room in the motel right now. It'll be harder for anybody to get to him in the new room."

Frank Jr. spent the weekend at the Los Angeles home of his mother.

The FBI, meantime, reported further progress in its efforts to account for all of the $240,000 that Sinatra Sr. paid for the release of his son.

With all but about $6,000 of the ransom recovered, a spokesman said:

"Additional funds have been located and steps are being taken to place them in federal custody."

Some time later this month a federal grand jury is expected to be asked for indictments against the trio of accused kidnapers—John W. Irwin, 42, a house painter; Joseph C. Amers, 23, an abalone diver and part-time professional boxer; and Barry W. Keenan, also 23, an unemployed appliance salesman.

Daniel Ordered Davy Jailed

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Daniel Boone ordered Davy Crockett jailed.

Mrs. Crockett swore out a warrant Sunday night against her husband, David Tidwell Crockett, 52, of Nashville, charging him with drunkenness.

Judge Daniel Boone of General Sessions Court refused bail.

Ottwell Goes on Trial at Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Clint Ottwell, 29, of Texarkana, one of three men charged in the slaying of James Henry Wallace of Texarkana last July 4 was to go on trial in Miller Circuit Court today.

Also charged with first degree murder in the slaying are Leroy Callahan, 44, of De Queen and David Roden, 43, of Hochatown, Okla. They will be tried later.

Wallace was shot during an auto chase after an apparent attempt to hold up Wallace's father-in-law was foiled.

Wallace was shot in the head when the men being pursued stopped and fired a rifle, Police Chief Max Tackett said.

Byron Salsman, 24, of Tulsa, Okla., an encyclopedia salesman, was waiting outside the home of Henry Hooks, Wallace's father-in-law, to sell Hooks some books, Tackett said. When a slow moving car circled the block, then stopped, Salsman hid behind a bush.

Another man also was hiding behind the bush, Tackett said, apparently to ambush Hooks, who carried large sums of money from his grocery store.

Salsman slipped away to notify police and met Hooks and Wallace in another car. They shined a light on the bush and the man hidden there jumped out and fired a pistol, Tackett said. No one was hit. The man fled in the other car and Wallace and Salsman chased them in Wallace's car.

Ottwell was arrested in Texarkana and Roden and Callahan were arrested in Louisiana.

State Shivers Under Sunny Skies Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arkansas shivered under mostly sunny skies today as winter's first very cold temperatures continued to grip the state.

Overnight low temperatures skidded to six degrees at Beaver, near Eureka Springs, and to 10 at Batesville and Mountain Home.

Lows ranged up to 23 degrees at Texarkana.

The forecast called for slightly warmer temperatures through Tuesday but a storm center now over the Rocky Mountains is moving toward Arkansas and raises a possibility of snow flurries Tuesday and Wednesday.

Today's highs were forecast in the 30-40 range with tonight's lows ranging 18-32 degrees.

The storm center had pushed some clouds into the state by morning.

The five-day forecast calls for temperatures averaging 10 degrees below normal with about one-quarter inch of precipitation in rain or snow showers during the period.

Star's Christmas Dinner for All Local Newsboys Is to Be Held on Friday

Hope Star's Christmas dinner for all newspaper delivery boys, regardless of the paper's name, will be held at 7 o'clock Friday night, December 20, in the main banquet room of the Diamond Cafeteria.

As in the past, the invitation is extended to carriers serving not only The Star but also those delivering Arkansas Gazette, Arkansas Democrat, Texarkana Gazette, and Shreveport Times, and the weekly Grit.

The newspaper agents are asked to notify The Star office at the earliest how many of their carriers will attend the dinner, specifying whites and Negroes. Arrangements for the Negro Christmas party will be made through one of The Star's Negro distributors.

The all-newsboy Christmas event — rather than one restricted to this paper's carriers alone — developed from the thought that possibly some boy serving the newspaper industry would be overlooked at this holiday time; therefore the invitation extends city-wide and includes the retail trading territory: Prescott, Emmet, Fulton, Washington. But registration must be made at The Star, either by letter or telephone, so the right number of meals may be prepared.

Generally Clear But Cold Grips Much of U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow fell in scattered Northern areas but generally clear and cold weather covered most of the eastern two-thirds of the nation today, with lowest temperatures of the season in many sections.

The mercury again tumbled far below zero across the eastern Plains, in wide areas of the Midwest and in many sections of the Northeast as the season's longest cold wave continued. Winter begins Dec. 22.

There was a possibility of some relief from the frigid cold in some sections. The Weather Bureau reported a warming trend was indicated along the eastern slopes of the Rockies, and across most of the central and northern Plains.

But icy cold numbed the Midwest this morning with the mercury dropping to 30 below zero in International Falls, Minn., and far below zero throughout the North Central region. It was zero in St. Louis and as low as 10 below in central Illinois.

In the South, the mercury edged to near freezing in Tallahassee, in northern Florida, and dropped to 45 in Tampa, Fla. Little Rock, Ark., reported 18 above and Louisville shivered in readings close to zero.

In the Northeast, lows included -11 in northern Maine, with zero in sections of New York State. Snow fell along Lakes Erie and Ontario. Some 30 inches of snow blanketed a narrow band along Lake Erie, south of Buffalo, Saturday.

Bodies of U.S. Airmen Recovered

By PETER ARNET

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — The bodies of three American aviators missing after their helicopter crashed into the ocean were recovered on a lonely beach in central Viet Nam today.

The bodies were flown to Saigon for an autopsy to determine the cause of death. No wreckage was sighted.

The copilot, only survivor of the crash 15 miles south of Quang Ngai, told authorities the helicopter crashed Saturday night half a mile offshore as it started to land to pick up wounded Vietnamese troops.

The American spokesman said the three dead Americans were considered noncombat casualties.

The copilot said the helicopter was coming in for a landing "when suddenly I found water around my knees." Two accompanying helicopters completed their missions.

The copilot swam ashore and spent Saturday night hiding in the bushes. He contacted government rescuers Sunday.

A U.S. officer was killed when Communist guerrillas fired at a battalion of Vietnamese infantrymen in the jungles of northern Quang Tin province. The officer was an adviser to the battalion. There were no other government casualties.

Foreign Aid Measure Before the Congress

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House debates foreign aid appropriations today as an adjournment - bent Congress begins its final week of work.

The House Appropriations Committee has recommended $2,801,700,000 in new funds for the aid program—$1,723,625,000 below the request of the late President John F. Kennedy. President Johnson has appealed to Congress to reverse the reduction test the United States be forced "to follow policies of weakness and retreat."

The foreign aid appropriation is part of a $4,430,966,960 major money measure, one of six that are the main items on Congress' program this week.

The decks have also been cleared of everything else controversial, and leaders hope to call it quits Friday after more than 11 months of almost continuous session. The prospect is, however, that the windup will come as usual either late Saturday or early Sunday.

There also is concern that after Thursday it may be hard to keep a majority of the Senate and the House in Washington to transact business. Many members already have left and others plan to depart soon.

The aid act approved Saturday by the Appropriations Committee is one of the deepest ever recommended for the program. The amount approved is $832 million below the spending ceiling authorized by Congress last week in a separate measure.

"The proposed reductions in foreign aid funds would put our foreign policy in a straitjacket," Johnson said in a statement after the committee had wielded its ax.

"I urge the Congress, therefore, to appropriate the funds essential to conduct strong and forward-looking foreign assistance programs in the U.S. national interest," the President said.

One of the committee's actions, slashing from $136 million to $100 million U.S. funds earmarked for voluntary contributions to special U.N. programs, drew the wrath of Adlai Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

If this "shocking action" is not reversed, Stevenson said Sunday in New York, the U.N. programs, which help children, refugees and young countries, and U.S. prestige will suffer.

The House may pass the appropriation measure today after attempts to increase the aid funds and others to cut it are made. The bill has not yet been considered by the Senate.

Another new appropriation measure, providing $41,866,000 to finance two new mental retardation programs, also must go through both branches. It Continued on Page Two

Sidewalk Not Fault of the Owner

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court held today that a property owner is not liable for injuries suffered because of a faulty sidewalk on which he had not made repairs.

It upheld a Pulaski Circuit Court decision that Mrs. Edith Epps was not entitled to $10,000 damages she asked against Harmon Remmel for injuries she said she suffered when she stepped into a hole in Remmel's sidewalk.

The court said a city ordinance requiring property owners to repair their sidewalks does not make the owner liable for bodily harm.

In another case involving property damages, the court upheld a $5,466 judgment against a Polk County landowner whose fire got out of control and damaged other property.

Deliberate Death Ruled, Man Charged

NEW YORK (AP) — A factory clerk is charged with homicide in the death of a basketball star run down by an automobile that police say was deliberately aimed at a group of college students.

The victim was Mike Schaffer, 19, sophomore star at City College, who only an hour earlier had led his teammates to their fourth straight victory.

He was high scorer with 18 points in Saturday night's 74-44 triumph over Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute of Troy, N.Y.

After the game, Schaffer left the uptown Manhattan gymnasium with nine other boys and girls, including his girl friend, Molly Irgang, 15. They began walking toward a subway. But death intervened five blocks away.

Police said a young motorist, after making remarks to the girls and scuffling briefly with one of the boys, climbed back into his auto and gunned it right at the group. All jumped to safety except Schaffer, who apparently didn't see the car coming. He was dragged almost a block.

About four hours later, armed with the license number of the auto, police arrested Eddie Weissman, 19, of Manhattan, and charged him with homicide.

Weissman admitted being in the car at the time Schaffer was killed but denied trying to hit anyone with it police said. He was held without bail.

Whales Perish on the Beach

PONTE VEDRA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Just as they did three or four years ago, pilot whales returned Sunday to Palo Verde Beach. Most of them perished on the sand.

Roy Landrum, St. Johns County deputy sheriff, said 150 whales were reported on the three-mile stretch of beach. He said some weighed as much as a ton and measured up to 16 feet.

Three young whales, weighing about 300 pounds each and measuring 6 feet, and two of 800-1,000 pounds each and 12-14 feet, were rescued by crews from Marineland of Florida.

Bob Dahme of Marineland said there are several theories as to why pilot whales come ashore. One is that their sonar devices ricochet off shallow, sloping beaches and confuse them. Another is that they are chased ashore by killer sharks.

Pilot whales are so called because they follow a male leader.

Tin Miners Continue to Hold Hostages

By THOMAS J. STONE
Associated Press Staff Writer

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — Communist-led tin miners continued to hold 19 hostages today, including four Americans, while awaiting an explanation of a deal for their release negotiated by leftist Vice President Juan Lechin.

It was hoped the hostages would be released sometime today after Lechin, head of the Miners' Union, explains the agreement at a general meeting in Catavi, the mining center 180 miles southeast of La Paz, where the hostages were held.

Originally, the 19 were expected to be freed Sunday night, but some radio stations controlled by the miners criticized the agreement and accused the union leadership of capitulating to government pressure.

However, sources close to the miners believed Lechin, who arrived in Catavi Sunday night, would have no trouble convincing the rank and file to free the hostages.

The miners seized the hostages in Catavi Dec. 6 as pawns to bargain for the release of two Communist union leaders arrested by the government of President Victor Paz Estenssoro on a number of charges.

In exchange for the release of the hostages, the government agreed to put the two union leaders — Irineo Pimental and Federico Escobar — on trial in Catavi instead of in La Paz and to release them on bail. The Continued on Page Two

Bank Can Continue Lawsuit

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U.S. District Judge Gordon Young has ruled that the Bank of Russellville is entitled to continue a lawsuit over ownership of $100,000 in bonds held by the bankrupt estate of Bronson Woodworth, Inc.

G. L. Nicklaus, trustee for the estate, petitioned the U.S. Court to enjoin the bank from proceeding with the lawsuit in Pope County Chancery Court.

Nicklaus contends the bonds belong to the estate and that all creditors should share in them. The bank maintains that it provided the money with which the bonds were purchased and should thus be declared owner of them.

Young ruled the bank should be allowed to proceed with the suit because it had initiated the suit before the Woodworth firm was declared bankrupt.

Young told Nicklaus he should intervene in the Chancery Court action if he wants to claim the bonds for the estate.

Woodworth, a former Dardanelle Grain Broker, was sentenced Oct. 18 to 18 months in prison for using false bills of lading to obtain $160,000 from the Bank of Russellville.

Seal Drive in Hempstead Now $858

Hempstead County's 1963 Christmas Seal Campaign is running ahead of last year, Dick Turnage Campaign chairman, announced today.

Receipts as of Friday, December 6, total $858.50 compared with $813.00 at the same date in 1962.

"The Christmas Seal Association is highly gratified at the increase shown so far," Mr. Turnage said. "Of course the campaign isn't over, and it's our hope and prayer that all those who haven't yet answered their Christmas Seal appeals will do so promptly and help maintain this lead right to the finish line. The Hempstead County Tuberculosis Committee is anxious to expand its activities aimed at wiping out TB and controlling the other respiratory diseases, which disable more Americans than any other groups of illnesses. In order to make this hope an actuality the need for funds is greater now than ever."

Orders for the Kennedy book, "The Torch Is Passed," reached 316 copies Saturday — but the time limit on orders has been extended right up to publication day, December 30.

The Star was given this notice today by the Little Rock Bureau of AP. The big book is supposed to go to press in New York December 30, and AP advises orders may be taken until then.

Star advertising promotion furnished by the Associated Press will appear throughout December describing the book. The price is $2, plus postage if the copy has to be mailed to you. Write The Star a letter ordering the Kennedy book. You don't have to pay now — but you do have to order now to get a copy, as our print-order will be limited to the number for which we have received firm orders. men expressed shock and surprise at their alleged involvement in the case.

Keenan's father, stockbroker John J. Keenan, described his son as "a fine kid" and said that like most boys, he was interested in cars. He recalled that except for one minor brush with the law—the theft of a case of beer in 1959—he'd never been in serious trouble.

Amsler's police record was a short one, too. He had three arrests in California, the latest for trespassing and an earlier one for violation of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act.

Irwin had a record extending over 18 years in Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey and California. The charges included disorderly conduct, assault and battery, desertion, non-support and drunkenness.

Keenan's 20-year-old ex-wife, Donna, who obtained an interlocutory divorce decree Nov. 12, told a reporter:

"I think this Irwin is the brains behind the whole thing. He got two boys who were down and out and took advantage of them."

Mrs. Keenan said she hoped to see her former husband "as soon as they'll let me." She wrote him a note, saying:

"Barry, I'm praying for you. I will see you as soon as possible. As always, Donna."

Oddly, a classmate of Keenan and Amsler at University High in West Los Angeles was Nancy Sinatra, sister of the kidnaped boy. But there are conflicting reports on whether she was well acquainted with either of the accused men.

Chicago Bears Somehow Get the Job Done

By JOE MOOSHIL

Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Bears never seem to look good but somehow they get the job done.

That's the way it was Sunday when they wrapped up the Western Division title of the National Football League with a 24-14 victory over Detroit and a meeting with the New York Giants for the championship Dec. 29 in Chicago.

A crowd of 45,317, ignoring 15-degree weather, actually booed quarterback Bill Wade in the first half and early in the third quarter.

But Wade and flanker back Johnny Morris, making his first full-time appearance in three weeks, won back the fans in the second half when the game-winning passing combination began to click.

With the Bears trailing 7-3 Wade and Morris teamed on a 51-yard touchdown pass to put the Chicagoans ahead. Another Wade-Morris aerial for 17 yards moved the Bears to the Detroit 22, before Wade fired a scoring pass to Mike Ditka.

Although this eventually proved to be enough, the Bears couldn't make matters in stride. Detroit came roaring back with a touchdown on the passing of Earl Morrill, who threw to Terry Barr for the final four yards.

The Bears still had a 17-14 lead in the final three minutes when Detroit on a 32-yard run by Tom Watkins, battered its way to the Bears 32. The Bear defense held but Chicago couldn't run out the clock and had to kick.

Once more the Lions geared for a final drive, but this time they were short-circuited as Dave Whitsett intercepted a pass and ran 39 yards into the end zone with 25 seconds left.

Now the crowd was cheering, because the Bears finally were assured of their first divisional title since 1956 and a chant picked up the ticking of the final seconds off the scoreboard.

Razorbacks Drop 4th Game of Season

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)

—The Arkansas Razorback basketball team which dropped its fourth straight game to a tough Vanderbilt team Saturday night has almost a full week to get ready for its next game Friday with Lamar Tech of Beaumont, Tex.

Vanderbilt, unbeaten, finished strong to top Arkansas 101-77 before 7,200 fans in Nashville, Tenn.

The commodores were much hotter in hitting field goals, as they put in 39 of 84 shots for a 46.4 average and Arkansas hit 30 of 81 for 37 per cent.

The early part of the game was close, but a fast break attack by the commodores pulled them into a good lead. Roger Schurig made 32 points for Vanderbilt, with teammates Jody Lee getting 29 and John Ed Miller 22. Jim Magness led Arkansas with 18.

Arkansas will be after its second win when it faces Lamar Tech.

Open House at The Little House
Festive Christmas decorations and enthusiastic Brownie and Girl Scouts greeted those attending Open House at the Girl Scout "Little House" in Fair Park on Sunday, December 15.

A gold sunburst medallion decorated the front door, and inside, gold candles and angels were seen on the mantle. The pretty Christmas tree resplendent with ornaments the girls had made will be given to the Hope Nursing Home.

Troop flags hung from the upstairs bannisters, and beneath them on the ground floor was a table of slever gifts ranging from decorated hand mirrors to pot holders. The scouts had made these gifts which will be included in the Lions Club baskets this year.

A green cloth covered the serving table, and it was centered with an arrangement of white poinsettias and gold leaves. Delicious fruit punch and cookies were served to approximately 250 who called during the appointed hours.

Dispersing hospitality were the following troops, leaders, and assistant leaders: Troop 60, Mrs. J. R. Forrester, Mrs.

Charles Martin; Troop 63, Mrs. James Laughard, Mrs. Al Page; Troop 311, Mrs. Lynn Harris, Mrs. Wilson Britt; Troop 356, Mrs. Hillman Keen, Mrs. A. W. McOver, Jr.; Troop 120, Mrs. J. B. Martin, Mrs. T. J. Milligan; Troop 117, Mrs. John B. Gardner, Jr.; Mrs. Henry W. Seamans; Troop 75, Mrs. Fred McElroy, Mrs. Gordon Tye.

Appreciation is expressed to all the women who cleaned the "Little House" Friday; to Mrs. John May for making curtains for the upstairs windows; to Bill Gunter for giving wood for the fireplace; to Paul Rawson for repairing the doors; and to Elmer Anderson for replacing broken windows.

Rose Garden Club
Mrs. Lyle Moore's home was the scene of the Rose Garden Club Christmas meeting on Friday, December 13. The home was beautifully decorated with such traditional items as a poinsettia and a lovely tree.

Fourteen answered the roll call with the name of a Christmas flower. The president, Mrs. Charles Stone, conducted a brief business session before the program.

Miss Carol Ann Taylor was a Club guest and brought the inspirational story, "The Man Who Owned the Stable." Around the Christmas tree the members exchanged gifts and were served cake and coffee for refreshments.

Friday Bridge Club
In a setting of Yuletide decorations Mrs. C. P. Tolleson entertained her Friday Bridge Club on December 13. Two tables of club members enjoyed the afternoon.

At the conclusion of play Mrs.

It is most important to me that my friends in Hope understand that we have investigated with great effort and concern this new position offered me and that we consider it a great opportunity and challenge. It is of even greater importance to me that all the patrons of this school district understand that our impending move is more of an action than a reaction. We feel that we are going to a new job and not running away from an old one. We have loved our brief stay in Hope and really had no idea that we would be tempted to leave so soon. We are totally convinced that the school officials here did all in their powers to endorse and encourage our work here. We feel particularly grateful to you, Mr. Jones, for your extreme thoughtfulness both personally and professionally. We request affirmative action on this resignation at the earliest convenient time. Naturally, we pledge to you our intentions of leaving the athletic department - as to records and equipment in as good a shape as is possible. Ben Burton Resigns for Post at Spa

The Board of Education met in special session yesterday afternoon for the purpose of considering Coach Ben F. Burton's resignation.

The Board stated that it was with deep regret and reluctance that we accept the resignation of Head football coach and athletic director Ben Burton. He has done a fine job of organizing and coaching for our school system.

We wish him the best of luck in his new position as head coach and athletic director of Hot Springs High School.

Applications will be received by the superintendent of schools for our coaching vacancy.

Resignation Letter
Mr. Jones H. Jones
Superintendent of Schools
Hope, Arkansas
Dear Mr. Jones,

It is with a tremendous feeling of indebtedness and gratitude, as well as one of regret that I submit my resignation as head football coach and athletic director at Hope High School effective January 24, 1964.

The officials of Hot Springs City Schools have extended an offer to me that I cannot decline. However, from the moment that my discussions with these people reached a point of seriousness, it was explained to them repeatedly that my acceptance of any offer would be contingent upon a satisfactory and harmonious parting with my contract with them. It is this type arrangement that I now request.

It is most important to me that my friends in Hope understand that we have investigated with great effort and concern this new position offered me and that we consider it a great opportunity and challenge. It is of even greater importance to me that all the patrons of this school district understand that our impending move is more of an action than a reaction. We feel that we are going to a new job and not running away from an old one. We have loved our brief stay in Hope and really had no idea that we would be tempted to leave so soon. We are totally convinced that the school officials here did all in their powers to endorse and encourage our work here.

We feel particularly grateful to you, Mr. Jones, for your extreme thoughtfulness both personally and professionally. We request affirmative action on this resignation at the earliest convenient time. Naturally, we pledge to you our intentions of leaving the athletic department - as to records and equipment in as good a shape as is possible. We further offer our services in any way or at any time that you see fit in the orientation of a successor. Thank you for your many kindnesses. Sincerely, BEN F. BURTON

Bobcats Edged by Magnolia in Tournament

By CARTER HARDAGE
Hope Star Sports Editor

Saturday night a sadder but wiser bunch of Bobcats came home from the Magnolia Tournament with the second place trophy, but only after being edged out of the finals 52-49 by Magnolia.

There are a lot of reasons you could give for the Cat's loss. It's true that half the time the Magnolia players assisted the officials by calling fouls. It's also true that the competition under the backboard was a little rough for a non-contact sport. And there were some hecklers in the crowd. But we still lost. Maybe it's best just to chalk it up to experience.

The first quarter was rather uneventful, except for the fact that two Magnolia players had to be taken out because they had three fouls apiece in the first three minutes. It ended with the Panthers out front 13-11.

The second period was the one that was to tell the tale. Strong ball control by Magnolia held the Bobcats to only 6 points, while the Panthers sacked up 16. The Cats went to the dressing room on the short end of a 29-17 score.

Hope started to rally early in the quarter, but slowed toward the last, edging up to 39-30. Then the fireworks really started. Both teams began to beat down. Hope would rack up two points, only to be matched by the Panthers, but fouls started falling all over the place. To be followed by a Panther.

Two of the Bobcats fouled out. Magnolia managed to sport a twelve point advantage with three minutes left to play, but the Cats started to press. The gap dwindled to six points, and the Panthers tried to freeze.

With less than a minute, it was 52-45 Magnolia. High quickly sacked in four free tosses, bringing the Cats to 52-49. Thrash got the ball on a steal, and was up to shoot, but the buzzer sounded, bringing the curtain down on a real thriller.

After the game, Johnny Honeycutt received the trophy on behalf of the Hope squad. Honeycutt was also high point man with 17. Henley had 11; Allen 8; Reinhardt, 6; High, 4; Archer, 2; and Thrash, 1.

The Bobcats will go to Prescott for a match tomorrow, and Wednesday the annual holiday tournament will get under way. The Lady Cats play that night, and the senior boys play Thursday.

Fire Judgment Is Upheld

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court upheld a $5,466 judgment today against a Polk County landowner whose fire got out of control and damaged other property.

The damages were awarded by Polk Circuit Court to Kenneth Headley and others against Belton Cecil, who allegedly set fire to woods on his property on March 30, 1960.

The court cited a state law which says any person who sets a fire is liable for damage it does. All of the property damaged by the fire did not adjoin Cecil's property, but Associate Justice Frank Holt, who wrote the unanimous opinion, said the law did not limit liability to adjoining landowners.

We wish to convey our sincere thanks to everyone for their kind expressions of sympathy at the death of our father, Jack Brown. To Dr. McKenzie & Staff, Drs. Lynn & Lowell Harris & Staff, Bro. Gordon Renshaw, The wonderful staff at Branch Hospital and Owners and Staff of Herndon-Cornelius Funeral Home. Words can never tell our appreciation to all of those who gave of their financial means to assure our Mother the best of medical care and to those who gave her blood. We pray to God that we may live to repay you. From the depths of our hearts, thank you. Jerry, Doyle & Ronny

A novel about BENEDICT ARNOLD by PHILIP VAIL
© 1963 by Philip Vail.

THE TWISTED SABER

THE STORY: Margaret Mansfield has received Benedict Arnold as a suitor. Returning home Benedict finds his sister is receiving Monsieur Daudet, whom Benedict had forbidden her to see.

VII
The man was an unprincipled scoundrel, Benedict thought bitterly. No one whose intentions were honorable would make love so freely to an innocent girl.

Hannah sighed tremulously. "I must confess to you that I am a wicked woman, Monsieur Daudet. You see - I have dreamed, too."

Benedict's fingers closed around the butt of the pistol. He cocked it, then stepped into the parlor, his face livid.

Hannah screamed. Daudet jumped to his feet and stood in front of Hannah, shielding her. "Put away that pistol, Mr. Arnold. Are you mad?"

Benedict stared at him contemptuously. "This isn't France, Daudet. I've visited your filthy country since the end of the war, and I've seen enough of your women. For your information, sir, my sister is a lady!"

"I do not doubt it, Mr. Arnold!" The Frenchman was almost too agitated to speak. "Please, Benedict, be reasonable," Hannah moaned.

"I'll attend to you later," Benedict slowly raised his pistol. "If you were a gentleman, Daudet, I'd give you a chance to defend yourself. But I refuse to challenge a swine."

Aiming carefully, he squeezed the trigger. The pistol roared, and the bullet buried itself in the wall, a few inches above the head of the terrified visitor.

Daudet fled ignominiously, not pausing to take his hat from a peg in the entrance hall. The door slammed, and Benedict, hurrying to the window, saw the man untie his horse, leap into the saddle, and ride off down Chapel Street.

Technically England and France had been enjoying the fruits of peace for three years, ever since the signing of the treaty that had ended their latest war in 1763.

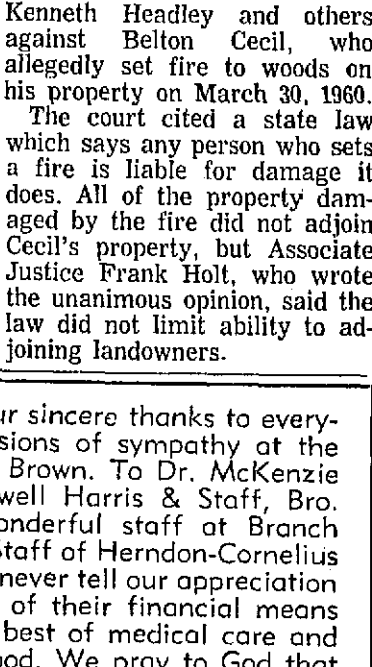

But there was no peace on the frontier. A column of New Englanders marched into the Ohio Valley in 1763 to put down an uprising of French and Indian scavengers, and in 1766 a
